

Broad Occupational Category

Skill Level 0	Occupations in management. Usually require varying level of education	Education requirements vary based on the position	Managerial positions
Skill Level A	Occupations usually require university education.	University degree at the bachelor's, master's, or doctorate level.	Professional positions
Skill Level B	Occupations usually require college education, specialized training or apprenticeship training.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two to three years of post-secondary education at a community college, institute of technology, or CEGEP or • Two to five years of apprenticeship training or • Three to four years of secondary school and more than two years of on-the-job training, specialized training courses, or specific work experience. • Occupations with supervisory responsibilities and occupations with significant health and safety responsibilities, such as firefighters, police officers, and registered nursing assistants are all assigned skill level B. 	Technical and skilled trades jobs
Skill Level C	Occupations usually require secondary school and/or occupation-specific training.	Some secondary school education, with up to two years of on-the-job training, training courses, or specific work experience	Semi-skilled jobs
Skill Level D	On-the-job training is usually provided for occupations.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Short work demonstration or on-the-job training or • No formal educational requirements. 	Entry-level jobs